You probably know a lot about the Women's Suffrage Movement, but do you know that many Black women joined the movement early on? Find out more about women born in the 1700s and 1800s through pictures and words at the March program "Great Women of the Suffrage Movement: Black Suffragists".

This original program is narrated by women here in Hendersonville. Princess Ferguson, author of the program, will be presenting.

REGISTER NOW at ssmreb@bellsouth.net Registrants will receive optional lunch information separately.

NOMINATE

2024 Legacy of Leadership Award

It's time to NOMINATE a candidate for this year's award.

The awardee must be a current AAUW Hendersonville Branch member who has shown a recent significant/sustained contribution to the Branch that supports the program and goals of the branch and furthers the AAUW mission.

To nominate, send the name of the person and why you're nominating her (200 words max) to Carol Walters at carol.walters@srls.info before March 30, 2024.

GIFT

“...thank you for the AAUW Hendersonville scholarship as it will truly help me with my education not only at Blue Ridge but beyond. I promise to keep up with my current 4.0 GPA because that is what this scholarship will allow me to do. Your generosity is greatly appreciated and I hope to one day get the opportunity to help someone as much as you have helped me.” Kylie Varnadore

Your scholarship gifts have meant so much to so many! Please consider a contribution to our 2024 scholarship fund campaign - Unlock Potential: Keys to Success. You can bring your tax deductible check, payable to AAUW Hendersonville Scholarship Fund, to a general meeting or mail it to: AAUW Hendersonville, PO Box 2043, Hendersonville, NC 28793.

JOIN, POST, COMMENT

As of February 19, our Facebook group has 10 members, three of whom have initiated a post. For this to become an effective forum for our members and others, we need more members to join, post, and comment, and then to invite other Facebook friends to join.

Signing up is easy! Log in to Facebook and join our group by clicking the Facebook logo below or email Cathy Veal at cathyveal@sbcglobal.net and she will invite you using your preferred email address.
