

Up & Coming

Hendersonville Branch General Meeting Carol's Choices Returns

Friday, April 19

11:30 am Lunch — 12:00 pm Program

First Congregational Church Fellowship Hall
Corner of 1735 Fifth Avenue W and White Pine Drive

Use the White Pine Drive entrance

Her presentation last March was uplifting, educational and just plain fun! And it's our great fortune that she's agreed to give us an encore. Master storyteller Carol Walters will share her favorite reads from the past year. Addicted to books, Carol reads at least 4-6 a month. Topics vary widely, or maybe that should be wildly. We guarantee you'll go home with a list of must-reads .

An optional box lunch with salad (S-Strawberry Glazed Pecan or T-Turkey Cobb), chips, fruit and drink is available for $10.

REGISTER NOW at ssmreb@bellsouth.net indicating T or S if you wish to order lunch.

P.S. Remember to bring your books for women and children at the Hendersonville Rescue Mission

Save the Date

Thursday, May 16

11:30-1:30 Seasons Restaurant

Our 46th Annual Meeting

★ Cheer our Legacy of Leadership Awardee ★ Meet our speaker, Tracy Swartout, first female Superintendent of the Blue Ridge Parkway ★ Applaud our Scholarship recipients, Kylie Varnadore and Sara Sanders ★ See old friends and welcome new ones ★ Enjoy a tasty lunch in a lovely setting ★ Elect your 24-25 Leadership Team, approve the budget, and hear the 2023-24 Highlights

Join us to celebrate the Power of One

Mary Jane Swanson's memorial information:

There will be two services and you are welcome to either. Saturday, April 27, 2024

Celebration of life at Carolina Village at 10:30am in the Magnolia Room of the Care Center.

Funeral at the Methodist Church downtown at 2:30 pm

Please remember to cast your vote on the proposed amendment to the AAUW Bylaws re. open membership. If you need background information about the proposal, please go to the national website at aauw.com, click on membership, click on Governance & Tools, scroll to Open Membership Toolkit. Also, on the main Equity Now national website page, scroll to Webinar Spotlight: Pivotal Moments in AAUW History and view. Feel free to discuss with Sandy at 828-290-5561.

