

Thursday, November 14

11:30 am Conversation — 12:00 pm Program

First Congregational Church Fellowship Hall*

Join us as we explore the characteristics of iconic women and whether those traits can be taught. Who are those iconic women who have made a difference in your life?

We'll also honor one of our own iconic women, AAUW member and Mayor Barbara Volk, for her leadership during our crisis of Helene.

REGISTER NOW at ssmreb@bellsouth.net

Feel free to bring your lunch and a friend!

* Corner of 1735 Fifth Avenue W and White Pine Drive - Use the White Pine Drive entrance

Join us this Saturday, November 9th from 10am-5pm to come shop and support an amazing group of local artists as well as enjoy some wonderful live music (11am, 1pm, and 3pm), demonstrating artists from Art League of Henderson County, and check out our raffle baskets of local goods! Drinks and baked goods will also be available for sale by two local vendors, Tart and Tonics and Mini Batch Bakery.

All proceeds from the raffle will benefit artists who have been impacted by Hurricane Helene. We can't wait to see you at the Visitor's Center Parking Lot! Don't forget to invite your friends!

♥ Remembering Diana Bagwell

I can't begin to express my great sorrow at the loss of Diana Bagwell. Mentoring girls and women was her north star. And she was our north star too. Quietly inspiring, always welcoming, and a passionate advocate for education, our 2020 Legacy of Leadership Awardee lived her life based on her values. I will miss her. Our branch will miss her. Sandy Bernard

Diana's obituary can be found here

See <https://www.shulerfuneralhome.com/obituaries/Diana-Stokes-Bagwell?obId=33577750>

Cards can be sent to Morris Bagwell, 615 Laurel Lake Drvie, Apt A-205, Columbus, NC 29722

Please share your memories of Diana with Princess Ferguson at aauwendo@gmail.com